PRIVACY & COOKIES POLICY

This website is owned and operated by Quantum Communication Limited ("QCL"), a company registered in Mauritius with business registration number C1512734, and registered office in Royal Road Tamarin Mauritius. QCL is the data controller for the purpose of the General Data Protection Regulation, and other applicable data protection laws. This means that QCL is principally responsible for looking after your personal data and determines the means and purposes of processing of personal data. This privacy policy governs the way in which we protect and process such information. Please read it carefully. If you disagree with its contents, you should discontinue using our services. Please notice that your personal data may be held in databases, which can be accessed by other companies on behalf of QCL. All companies with such access will comply with the standards set out in this Policy.

PERSONAL DATA YOU PROVIDE US

This website can be accessed and used without registration, and without having to provide us any personal data. You may opt in to receive information about promotions, bonuses and others by subscribing to our mailing list by providing your email address. You may any time stop receiving such communications by writing to us or clicking the "unsubscribe" button in any of our emails to you. In case you contact us, e.g., by email, through contact forms, by telephone or in writing, we may keep a copy of that correspondence or communication.

PERSONAL DATA WE COLLECT AUTOMATICALLY

We automatically collect certain information, including your IP address, the date and time you accessed our services, the hardware, software or internet browser you use and information about your computer's operating system, like application versions and your language settings. We also collect information about clicks and pages viewed by you. If you are using a mobile device, we collect data that identifies your mobile device, device-specific settings and characteristics, app crashes and other system activity.

USE OF PERSONAL DATA

We collect and analyze personal data in order to improve the quality of our services, particularly in order to provide you with relevant and interesting content, and to conduct analytics and measurement to understand how our services are used. We may report aggregate information or statistical data about our users browsing actions and patterns to third parties (e.g. advertisers) in a way that does not identify any individual. We send out promotional emails relating to products and services for those visitors who have opted in to receive such communications. We will not share your personal data with third parties for marketing purposes unless you have provided us with your express consent to do so.

LEGAL BASIS FOR DATA PROCESSING

We can process personal data on various legal bases outlined in the Article 6(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation. Your data may be processed where we have obtained your consent for a specific processing purpose. When processing of data is based on consent, you can at any time withdraw your consent by contacting us or clicking the 'unsubscribe' button in the correspondence you receive from us. We may also process personal data where the processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party; where our company is subject to a legal obligation by which processing of personal data is required; and where processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by our company or by a third party except where such interests are overridden by the interests or fundamental rights and freedoms of an identified or identifiable person to whom the personal data relates.
